- I will pay the designated program fee covering the full period of my placement.
- I will have the status of non-degree student at my host institution.
- My placement will be limited to the period specified. An extension request is subject to review and approval by my home and host institutions and ISEP.
- My placement may be terminated by ISEP or by my host institution if I fail to remain enrolled full time at my host institution, fail to maintain minimum academic standards as defined by my home or host institution, or am found by ISEP or the host institution to be in violation of laws or regulations of my host country or institution.
- If I withdraw from the program anytime after accepting the placement, or if my placement is terminated after I arrive at my host institution:
 - a) I may still be obligated to pay the full program fee at the discretion of my home institution in collaboration and agreement with ISEP and my host institution.
 - b) I will forfeit my right to receive benefits as an ISEP participant and must reimburse my host institution for any money advanced to me to cover benefits after the date of my withdrawal or termination.

ISEP seeks to ensure that benefits and services outlined in the ISEP Terms of Participation for Institutional Members are provided by institutions cooperating with ISEP and shall seek to correct any inadequacies brought to its attention. I understand that ISEP's responsibility to participants does not extend beyond such endeavors and that ISEP is not liable to any participant for benefits not provided by the participant's home or host institution.

I acknowledge that all statements in this application are complete and accurate to the best of my ability. I have read and understand the terms and conditions of undertaking an ISEP program. I am aware that it is my responsibility to obtain all visas and to arrange air travel.

Language Proficiency Report

International Student Exchange Programs

This report is required for applicants planning to pursue coursework in a language other than their native language(s). Applicants must submit a separate form for each language in which their courses will be taught at their requested study sites. Note: Non-native speakers of English applying to sites where English is the language of instruction must submit this form if a TOEFL is not available at the time of application. This form does not replace an official TOEFL score, which will be required to finalize placement.

On a separate sheet of paper, please answer the following question in a clear, thoughtfully prepared short essay (about 300-500 words). Include your name and the name of your home institution on each page. Please submit this essay in the language in which you will be studying at your targeted host institution(s).

You may include references to a particular region, but please do not include references to a specific host site or university as your application may be sent to any of the choices you listed on your Host Site Request List. Please include specific host site information under No. 5 on the appropriate Course Request List, on page 12 of this application.

If you are applying to study in a language(s) other than English, submit this essay in both English and the other language(s). Please do not use an online translation program (such as Google Translate).

QUESTION: ISEP is unique because it offers the opportunity for full immersion in the host culture. However, it is your responsibility to make the most of this experience. What are your goals for studying abroad and for integrating in the host culture? Introduce yourself and explain what specific situations from your past (i.e., coursework, job experience, travel, intercultural experience) have helped you prepare to accomplish these goals.

Academic Reference

Reference requested from: _____

(referee must be a university-level instructor or academic advisor)

Under the U.S. federal law (Section 438 of Public Law 90-247, as amended) students are permitted access to certain education records. Section 438(a)(2)(B) provides that a student may waive the right to inspect confidential letters of recommendation. Many applicants have found that a recommendation letter written in confidence has a greater impact than one to which the applicant also has access. If you waive your right to inspect the information requested by this form, please sign below.

The applicant named above is applying for study abroad through the International Student Exchange Program (ISEP). Since participants usually directly matriculate into their host institutions and in all cases serve as representatives of their nation and institution, ISEP is concerned with the applicant's academic and personal suitability for study abroad. The willingness of host institutions to accept future participants will be affected by this applicant's performance. Although references written in English are most convenient for ISEP, the reference may be completed in any major language.

A. Please indicate the applicant's ability and academic competence in comparison with other individuals whom you have known at similar stages in their academic careers.

Knowledge in area of specialization
Motivation and seriousness of purpose
Ability to plan and carry out research/ independent study
Ability to express thoughts in speech and writing
Emotional stability and maturity
Self-reliance and independence

B. Please submit a reference letter to answer the following questions on a separate sheet with your institution's letterhead. Include your name, title, office address, e-mail address, and signature. Return this form with the letter by the specified date to the ISEP Coordinator listed below.

1. How long and in what capacity have you known the applicant?

2. Please comment specifically on the applicant in terms of the following: (a) academic suitability for study at an institution abroad; (b) personal suitability for living abroad; (c) how participation in the ISEP program will be of benefit, both academically and personally; (d) weaknesses; (e) linguistic preparation, if applicable; and (f) any other factors that you believe may affect a successful experience on an ISEP program.

- Academic program requirements (attach additional sheet if necessary)

Using the online ISEP Directory to access the university's course information, please list the courses offered at the above-named host institution that you are interested in taking. Be as specific as possible - this information will be used to determine the academic suitability of the site requested. Note that some flexibility is required and the courses you request may not be the courses you actually take while abroad. Please list more courses than you intend to take as some courses may not be available during your requested placement period. Mark with an asterisk () any courses that must be completed during your period of study in order to fulfill any home institution requirements.* Note: Mark only courses that are absolutely essential, since these courses limit your flexibility and placement options.

Host Institution Course Number	Host Institution Course Name	Other information

If the course requirements above cannot be met, I:

- Do wish a placement at this institution and am very flexible in regard to course selection.
 Do wish a placement at this institution if courses with similar course content are available.
 Do NOT wish a placement at this institution.

- On a separate sheet, please explain why this particular site is appropriate for your study abroad goals (academic, personal, geographical, etc.)

I have discussed my proposed program with the appropriate faculty and advisors, and have approval for the academic program outlined above. I understand that course prerequisites at the host campus must be met and that course registration at the host institution is based on the availability of offerings and cannot be guaranteed.
